

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mail from the transport Kilpatrick was distributed yesterday at the post-office, after being subjected to fumigation.

A. Gartley, manager of the Hawaiian Electric Company, returned to the city on the Mariposa. He went to the Coast for a brief visit.

Professor H. S. Townsend has received an offer to take charge of a school division in the Philippines, but has not yet made up his mind to accept.

J. C. B. Hebbard, ex-judge of the Superior Court of San Francisco, is in the city. He came down from San Francisco on the Mariposa, and will make a visit of some length.

Mrs. W. J. Lowrie, of Spreckelsville, Maui, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Clara Lowrie, arrived on the Mariposa on Saturday, and are registered at the Hawaiian Hotel.

George W. Gair, of New York, member of the New York Yacht Club, accompanied by Miss J. L. Gair, Mrs. A. Hallett and Miss Gillett, arrived on the Mariposa, and will visit in the Islands for several weeks.

A Chinese was arrested last night in the act of robbing a Chinese store. He was found in the establishment with his shoes off and a lot of silver in his pockets. The hat he wore belonged to another man. He will appear in court this morning. Tuck Kee is his name.

Joseph Moore, the great California engineer, and father of Andrew Moore, manager of the Paauhau Plantation, died in London, March 31. His youngest son, Joseph, is also on the plantation. Mr. Moore left a large fortune, consisting mainly of business property located in San Francisco.

The general convention of the church in America meets in October next at San Francisco. The condition of the church in Hawaii will be discussed, but one of the leading questions asked will be: "What is the church in Hawaii able and willing to do for herself?"—Anglican Church Chronicle.

Owing to the needed presence of Professor Sharpe, Director John Piver and other important members of the minstrel troupe at the Elks' initiation tonight, the rehearsal of the Healan blackface artists has been postponed until tomorrow evening at the regular time. Those interested will kindly accept this as notice.

Mrs. Sarah Angus, accompanied by her son, George H. Angus, returned on the Mariposa from an extended visit to friends in San Francisco. George Angus made a lengthy trip across the continent, and spent much of his three months' absence in Boston and New York, where other Honoluluans were encountered. His trip was for business, but he found time to indulge in a few of the pleasures of the metropolis.

Lieutenant Emory Winship, U. S. N., has been advanced four numbers in rank on the list of lieutenants, junior grade, in the navy, for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle. Winship was badly wounded in the Philippines during the landing of a boat's crew from the Yorktown. He had charge of the boat's howitzer, and in covering the retreat of the jacksies, he received several severe wounds. He is a general favorite in Honolulu society circles.

The Angle Lamp

ALSO CARRY A GOOD STOCK OF HANGING, STAND AND HAND LAMPS.

Another Large Shipment of Angle Lamps. THE ANGLE LAMP. THE LIGHT THAT NEVER FAILS.

It seems almost incredible that any lamp could be good enough to take the place of electricity on even terms, yet such is the case with the ANGLE LAMP. All over the Island people are throwing away their old lamps and replacing them with this lamp, not merely because it costs about one-tenth as much to maintain (cost is no object to some people), but, besides being infinitely cheaper, it is more brilliant and more reliable in its bracing. It is a very old-fashioned lamp was a barbarous contrivance. THE ANGLE LAMP never smokes, smells or gives any trouble, is lighted and extinguished as easily as gas, and is the ideal light from every standpoint. We carry these lamps from $1.80 up.
